

Congratulations to all graduates

SIS News

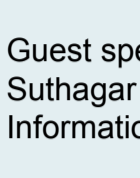

Administrative Survey. This years Administrative survey was expanded to all staff, not just those ANU8 and above as had been the case in previous years.

Scholarly Information Services was:

based on responses of all staff

For staff ANU08 and above we were

The top 10 areas of satisfaction included:

- Access to research resources (print and online)
Management of electronic repository (digital collection)

Areas for improvement included ERMS, physical state of the library building

Great rating for customer service - well done everybody!

We will have access to more data in the future to review comments and suggestions.

SIS STAFF MEETING

When? WEDNESDAY 31st July
Where? McDonald Room, Menzies Library
10-11.30 am

Guest speaker:
Suthagar Seevaratnam Chief Information Security Officer, ANU.

Presentations will also be given on:
OER project
DTM project

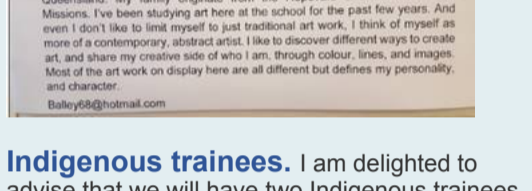

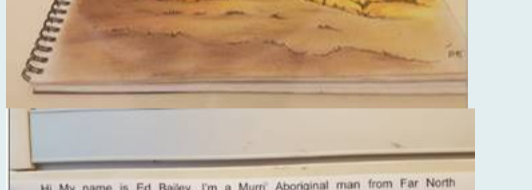

New privacy module launched. I am pleased to advise that a new module on Privacy has been launched on Pulse. The content has been developed by specialist legal advisers, Salinger Privacy with input from many across the university who provided very valuable feedback.

I encourage you to use the module in the coming weeks to increase your knowledge of privacy and understand the context of privacy in the university.

We will be working with a legal expert to develop some focused training course to be offered in the coming months.

- Privacy and student information
Privacy and HR information
Privacy Impact Assessments
Privacy for academics.

I am very keen to have your views on short courses that would be useful. If you could make suggestions to me by 30 July that will enable us to work with the provider to prepare courses to run later this year.

JB Chifley Library
The door is Kambrri opens on Tuesday 30th July - the team is working openly with the wonderful Kai...

NAIDOC Week.
Well done to all who put together the Indigenous languages exhibition in the Menzies Library

Congratulations to staff in the Art & Music Library for the display of an Indigenous student's art work for NAIDOC Week

Indigenous trainees. I am delighted to advise that we will have two Indigenous trainees for the coming 12 months.

CAUL.
UOW Library - Year in Review 2018
Alison Slocombe, Manager, Lismore Campus Library & Collection Access Services at Director from 5th August 2019 until 7th February 2020 while Kate Kelly is on leave.

Copyright.
The CAUL and ALCC submissions to Standards Australia on their business models are being prepared.

And on to semester 2. Update on events for the beginning of semester 2:

Library tours
The Library tours schedule is now available online and they have all been added as Library events.

They have also been added to the ANU Orientation list of events

To be promoted through social media and info screens during O Week and the first week of semester 2

Student Guides
New Student Guides have been distributed
It is also available online and there is a link on the Library homepage

Opening hours signs
The new opening hours signs are being completed now and will be delivered next week social media posts and info screens on the change in opening hours will run

Bush Week Market Day
The Library will have a booth at the ANUSA Bush Week Market day on Weds 24 July, from 10am to 3pm.

ANU Global Orientation session
The Library had a booth at the Market day for inbound exchange and study abroad students

Myanmar. I bring greetings from our colleagues in the University of Yangon Department of Library and Information Studies and University Library. It was wonderful to install and run the new digital equipment -

And spoke at the 2019 Conference "Managing Challenges in Myanmar's Transition" at the University of Yangon.

Thank you to all who helped - Margaret Prescott, Kit Nelson, Omar and Genevieve in ITS and SAGE.

Buildings. A very exciting announcement - Library and Archives Canada (LAC) and the Plenary Properties Gatineau (PPG) consortium, which is responsible for constructing a second preservation centre in Gatineau, Quebec, revealed the preliminary design of the building that will be located directly behind the current Preservation Centre.

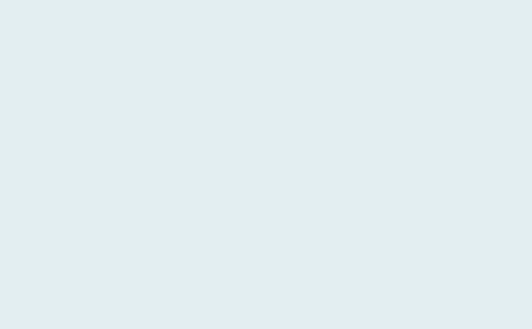

IARU. Last week librarians from the International Alliance of Research Universities visited with us. They heard great presentations from Emily (ANU Press), Heather (Library), Kathryn (Archives and me). In addition we visited Hancock, Menzies and Chifley Libraries, the Tunnel and AIATSIS. Thanks to everyone who helped make it a memorable experience.

Roxanne Missingham
University Librarian

FROM HR

Events

Designing the Archive: International Council on Archives (ICA), Pacific Regional Branch of ICA, the Australian Society of Archivists and the Archives and Records Association of New Zealand conference

DATE: 21-25 October 2019
VENUE: Adelaide.
See more online

Australian Research Data Commons

Research Data Alliance meet and greet Australia tour 22 Jul - 8 Aug

- Wed 24 Jul, 10:00 - 12:00, Canberra
Fri 26 Jul, 9:00 - 11:00, Melbourne
Thu 1 Aug, 10:00 - 12:00, Sydney
Fri 2 Aug, 10:00 - 12:00, Brisbane
Tue 6 Aug, 10:00 - 12:00, Perth.

Read more

ANU Press and Open Access Publishing.

26th Educational Publishing Awards Australia. ANU Press works shortlisted are:

Tertiary (Wholly Australian) Teaching and Learning - digital only
Introduction to the Tibetan Language: An eTextbook for spoken and literary Tibetan by Ruth Gamble, Tenzin Ringpangtsang, Chung Tsering et al.

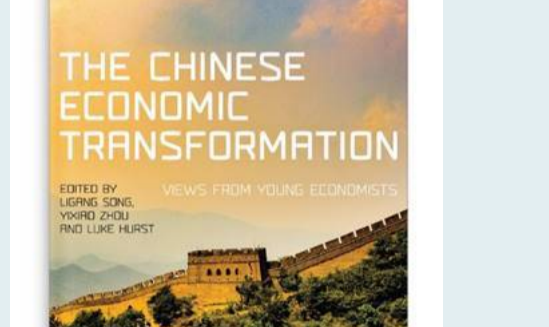

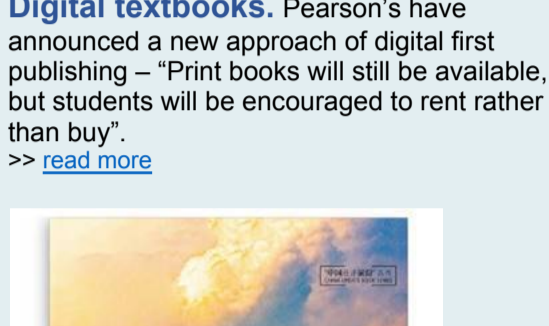

Scholarly Non-Fiction Book of the Year
Grappling with the Bomb: Britain's Pacific H-bomb Test by Nic Mclellan

Open Access monographs. The major UK funders are implementing policies and mandates on open access (OA) monographs.

Finding innovations in publishing: learning across sectors. Sydney University Press has been looking for ways to improve their publishing systems and they've found principles that focus on eliminating waste and consciously working with the end-user in mind.

Library Publishers Convene in Vancouver to Discuss Open Platforms and Open Educational Resources.

Digital textbooks. Pearson's have announced a new approach of digital first publishing - "Print books will still be available, but students will be encouraged to rent rather than buy".

Open Research

Universities and knowledge sharing: Evaluating progress to openness at the institutional level.

Lucy Montgomery, Cameron Neylon, Richard Hosking, Karl Huang, Aikim Ozyaygen and Katie Wilson have undertaken very detailed evaluation using Web of Science, Scopus and Unpaywall as well as other sources.

ORCID. Thank you so much to ITS! We now are alerted to new academics that join ANU and contact them to talk about ORCID and the importance of advising us of what their ORCID is.

ERA and the dreaded rankings. Dr Tim Cahill has been very closely involved with ERA and rankings for a considerable period of time.

New in the repository

- Overcoming barriers to solar and wind energy adoption in two Asian giants: India and Indonesia
Planning and Soft Law
Chronotopes in the scopic regime of sovereignty
Closures of coal-fired power stations in Australia: local unemployment effects
Modelling diverse sources of Clostridium difficile in the community: importance of animals, infants and asymptomatic carriers (IN PRESS)

Keeping up to date

Books, PhDs under threat as 'starved of funds'.

The Tune review under David Tune. This article highlights the importance of providing access to archive - "The Tune Review, led by former Department of Finance secretary David Tune, has archives staff and users sounding the alarm over an institution they say has long been neglected by the federal government to the point where it is "starved of funds", haemorrhaging staff and at risk of losing undigitised records.

Guide to Cataloging and Metadata.

ALCTS Publishing has released the first title in its new Sudden Position Guide series. Throughout this guide, authors share a variety of resources and tools and provide a solid starting point for learning the principles and standards of resource description for cataloging and metadata.

Diverting Leakage to the Library Subscription Channel.

Artificial Intelligence: governance and leadership - White paper - Australian Human Rights Commission and World Economic Forum 2019.

Most 20th-century books not available online. Brewster Kahle writes: "The books of the 20th century are largely not online. They are mostly not available from even the biggest booksellers. Also, libraries that have collected hard copies of these books have not been able to deliver them in a cost-efficient, simple, digital form to their patrons.

College & Research Libraries News (C&RL News).

- Brian Vetruba. "New Directions for Libraries, Scholars, and Partnerships: North American librarians' symposium in Europe provide forums to share, collaborate, and learn."
Karen Munro. "Rethinking the system: Thinking broadly about equity, diversity, and inclusion in scholarly communication."

Elsevier access cut off to University of California Berkeley.

The University of California has been out of contract with Elsevier since January. UC ended negotiations for a new journal subscription contract on February 28, with the support of the system-wide Academic Senate.

The Grounded Instruction in the Scholarship of Teaching and Learning.

Conversations with Library Directors. Out from Elsevier - several library directors share personal anecdotes about their professional experiences, as well as insights into the contemporary demands on library leadership.

Organizing the Work of the Art Museum.

Held in Leiden on the discovery and use of open (digitized) collections. A summary of the event, focusing on three aspects of the meeting: access to content in digital libraries (IIIF); discovery of this content; and use of the content by scholars is online.

Cultural Competence: Toward a More Robust Conceptualisation.

2018 ACRL Academic Library Trends and Statistics for Carnegie Classifications. A few highlights:

- library expenditures for collection materials averaged $5.3 million for doctoral degree-granting institutions;
On average, doctoral degree granting institutions spent 77.2% of their materials budgets on ongoing commitments to subscriptions in 2017;
Expenditures for salaries and wages accounted for 55.6% of the total library expenditures on average.
Spending per FTE student averaged $633 for doctoral/research institutions

Understanding the Landscape of Library Accessibility for Online Materials.

Libraries are the most progressive in terms of accessibility when they maintain the most control over their content.

- National policies and community technical guidelines on accessibility hold more prominence than local or institutional mandates.
Most accessibility training is self-initiated; more infrastructure is needed to train librarians in accessibility mandates and tools.