

Scholarly Information Services Symposium

Unleashing our strengths: achieving success for a world class research university

Wednesday 11 October 2023

China in the World Auditorium, 188 Fellows Lane, ANU

9.15am	Welcome and plan for the symposium	Roxanne Missingham
9.20am	Introduction	Assoc. Prof. Keturah Whitford
9.30-10.30 am	Panel: academics leading in education and research	Cameron Roles, Senior Lecturer, ANU College of Law Dr Rosalie Aroni, Senior Lecturer in Health Science, Medical School, ANU College of Health & Medicine Professor Rosalind Smith, ANU College of Arts & Social Sciences
10.30-11.00 am	Morning tea	Catered
11.00-12.30 am	Presentations on activities in areas in SIS (15 mins each): 1. Archives, Information governance and records 2. SIS Communications 3. Digital Scholarship 4. ANU Press 5. Australian Research Data Commons (ARDC) Discussion	ANU Archives Information governance and records staff SIS Communications staff Digital Scholarship staff ANU Press staff Dr Sheida Hadavi, Director, Translational Research Data Challenges, ARDC
12.15 -1.00 pm	LUNCH

1.00-2.00 pm	Presentations on activities in areas in SIS (15 mins each): <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Library - Collection and Access and Discovery (CAD) 2. Library - Client services 3. Student training & capabilities Discussion	CAD staff Client Services staff Academic Competencies & Digital Capabilities (ACDC)
2.00-2.30 pm	University perspective	Prof Sally Wheeler, DVC, International and Corporate
2.30 pm	Wrap up	Roxanne Missingham